SECTION B

Answer questions in either (a), (b) or (c)

- (a) Read the following extract and answer the questions below it.

He only begged just enough to save himself, for the laws against mendicancy was stringent, and the penalties heavy; so he put in a good deal of his time listening to good Father Andrew's charming old tales and legend, and about giants and fairies, dwarfs and genii, and enchanted castles, and gorgeous kings and princes. His head grew to be full of these wonderful things, and many a night as he lay in the dark on his scant and offensive straw, tired, hungry, and smarting from a thrashing, he unleashed his imagination and soon forgot his aches and pains in delicious picturing to himself of the charmed life a petted prince in a regal palace.

- Who is referred to as 'he'? Where is 'he'? (02 marks)
- What did he learn from Father Andrew's tales? (02 marks)
- Write the meaning of these words.
 - Penalties
 - Unleashed (02 marks)
- Describe the life of 'he' as given in the above extract. (04 marks)

(b) Read the following extract and answer the questions below it.

Without looking up he was aware that the frying had stopped, he noticed the hissing of the oven when the fire died out, the clinking of pans and ladles being washed, and then the footsteps approaching him, four pairs of feet from the kitchen, and one pair from the front stall, as trays of leftovers were brought in as the last act for the day. Then, when he knew that all of them were assembled at his desk, he addressed on a general way a routine question, “How much is left over?”

Part - II

Poetry

2. The student must support the given statement with examples to show the protective power of the star. The poet's attitudes towards the star/ How people deify natural objects / Respectful tone with archaic language / How Venus brings peace, harmony and beauty to the world/ figurative language
3. The place selected by the terrorist to plant the bomb shows his target is ordinary civilians/ detached, depersonalized observation of people going in and out/ his impatience to finish the work/Irony created by the casual tone; 'What a view..'
4. The poet's selection of the wife of the clown as the speaker to expose his reality is effective as she is the most reliable person to speak here. The contrast between his public life and private life, her concern over her husband effectively point out the difference between the reality and appearance,
5. The poet brings out political treacheries that lead to his ethnic conflict. She further criticizes the exaggerated reactions of media, expatriates and tourists and meaningless efforts of the intellectuals in finding an answer while the politically supported mobs ransack cities harassing the ordinary Tamils. Amidst such chaos, the poet shows the strong bond/friendship/brotherhood across races through a telephone conversation as an example. The poet's disappointment over the distanced relationships and lost happiness and harmony further heightens these notions,

Prose

6. The Nightingale being so generous and selfless, sacrifices her life for the happiness of the young Student. Her suffering should be elaborated in the answers to convince the effect she takes to make the others happy. Yet the effort becomes meaningless due to inhumanity and hypocrisy of the human world.
7. Nicholas' behaviour suggests what he lacks. He is not given love, care and attention. The aunt denies opportunities for his freedom and play and cognitive development such as imagination and critical thinking. (Gooseberry garden and the lumber room). He also reacts to wrong child rearing and punitive methods of adults. The aunt's punishment and how Nicholas outsmarts the aunt are good lesson to an adult.
8. His responsibility as the team leader during the attack/his concern for the other members/his mature and disciplined behavior/ The team's reaction after the incident.

Fiction

9. Jagan's dress code and principles of his life/his religious devotion/ his faith in Gandhi Yet as a businessman he is stingy and cunning.(A better student may discuss his ignorance in religion and his hypocrisy)
10. Tom Canty's harsh life in poverty stricken London with cruel harassments from his adults should be elaborated.
11. The way he faces economic hardships of the family as a once petted child should be discussed with examples. As a result his biggest loss is Tony
