

English

Grade 7

5.1- Uses visual clues to derive the meaning the text.

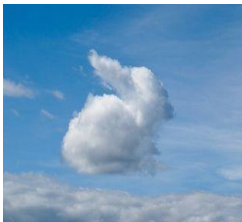

01. Can you guess?

Elephant

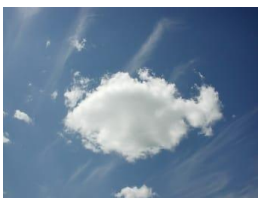

Fish

Horse

Bird

Rabbit

02. Look at the pictures and match with the descriptions

1

2

3

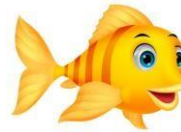

4

5

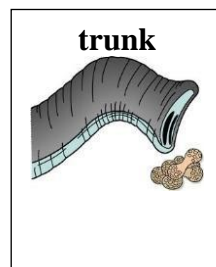

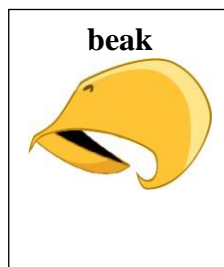

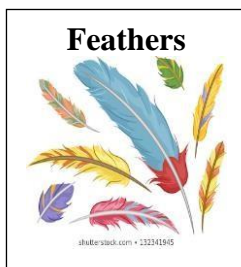

6

7

- It is a loyal pet of man.
- It has green feathers and a red beak.
- It glides and makes a “hiss” sound.
- It is very big and has a trunk.
- It swims and lives in the sea or river.
- It has a furry tail and a rosy nose.
- It has long ears and is very innocent (අහිංසක).

03. Match the pictures with the incidents.

The lion and his two friends are walking over a bridge.

The parrot is sharing his fruits with the cat.

The elephant is talking with the monkey.

The boy and the dog are laughing together.

The cat is chasing a rat.

04. Look at the jumbled picture story. Can you re – order it?

1

5

9

01. Once there lived a monkey by a blueberry tree near a river.
02. A crocodile also lives by the blueberry tree and both the monkey and the crocodile became friends.
03. Monkey shared tasty blueberries with the crocodile.
04. Once crocodile brought grapes(මිදි) to his wife and then she wanted to eat the heart of the monkey.
05. So, one day, crocodile told monkey that his wife invited him for dinner(රාත්‍රී ආහාර වේල).
06. Monkey accepted(පිළිගන්නා) the invitation (ආරාධනාව) and got into the back of the crocodile.
07. On the way monkey asked, “What’s there for dinner?” and the crocodile replied, “It’s you and your heart.”
08. The clever monkey said that his heart(හදවන) is on the blueberry tree.
09. Foolish crocodile brought monkey back to the blueberry tree.
10. Clever monkey jumped and climbed on the blueberry tree and said to the crocodile to never meet (කවදාවත් මුණගැහෙන්න එපා) him again