Past teachers appreciated

As a part of "Teachers' Day" programme of Kalpitiya Maha Vidyalaya, 42 teachers who had taught in the school were taken on a trip last Saturday. The trip was organized by the Old Students' Association of the school. The chairman of the association, Dr. Anura Silva said, " Our teachers first visited the Sithulpawwa temple, where they engaged in a number of religious activities. Then they visited several interesting places in the South and had lunch at the Navy Camp in Tangalle." Dr. Silva further said that one of the objectives of organizing this event was to set an example to the younger generation that they should respect and pay gratitude to their teachers who shaped their lives turning them into humans they are today.
