

Kitty's Dream Job

Will for future predictions

Kitty: Gran is that you?

Gran: Yes, but a long time ago.

Kitty: What was your job?

Gran: I was a nurse and I helped sick people. I was living in Paris with your grandfather. It was wonderful. Every day we ate amazing French food!

Kitty: Wow! When I grow up I think I... will?

Gran: That's right, we use 'will' to talk about the future.

Kitty: I will be a vet and I'll help sick animals. I'll live in Australia with Hero. I'll have a big house and I'll eat ice-cream every day!

Gran: Will you really eat ice-cream every day?

Kitty: Yes, every day!

Gran: You will be very sick! You won't be able to help sick animals, instead they will have to help you!
