me, Far from these hills of brown, lad, Far from the dan-cing sea? A heart free from all e - vil, fame. Gold for your emp-ty purse, lad, Fame for a hon-est name? Ah! wealth may not bring glad - ness, me, Back to our hills of brown, lad, Back to the dan-cing sea, A look straight from your heart, dear,

Hap-py and pure and gay, Just what a boy's heart should be, That's what you'll take a - way.
 Fame is not al - ways kind, Love that is best and tru - est, Lad, you will leave be - hind.
 Tell-ing me all I need, Then with your arms a - round me I shall be blest in - deed.
