One day the king decided to build a new palace near the river. He asked one of his ministers to carry out the construction work. Under the supervision of the minister, soon the palace was ready. Then the minister went to have a final look before showing it to the king. It was indeed a fine palace and the minister was very happy. Suddenly he noticed something that intrigued him.

“What’s that? “The minister exclaimed. Just a few yards away from the palace, there was an shabby hut. “Why didn’t I see it before?” the minister thought. He thought the hut marred the grandeur of the palace and wanted to demolish it.

His men told him that it belonged to an old woman. The minister went to meet her and asked her to sell the land to him. But the old woman refused. “Sir, I’ve lived here all my life. I want to spend the rest of my life in this hut,” she declared.

No matter how the minister tried to convince the old woman, she refused to sell the house. Finally the matter was taken to the king.
