5 On 10th April 1912, hundreds of people crowded onto a dock in England. Excitedly, they were there to see the Titanic set off on her first voyage. The Titanic was the largest ship in the world. Many people called her “The wonder ship”. Many said the Titanic was the best ship ever built as she was too strong to sink.

Everything started out smoothly. By 14 April, the Titanic was in the middle of the Atlantic ocean. The weather was clear. That night, the stars shone brightly against the cold, dark sky. Shortly before midnight, a sailor on duty spotted something in the darkness. He could not see it clearly but he knew it could likely be an iceberg, a common sight in the Atlantic ocean.

10 The sailor quickly sounded the alarm and shouted, “Iceberg right ahead”. The crew jumped into action. They tried to turn the Titanic away from the iceberg, but it was too late. The ship scraped against the mountain of ice. Water had poured into the ship and nothing could stop it. Since the water had flooded the lower decks and the water level kept rising, the crew knew then that unsinkable ship was going to sink.

(1) Why did the hundreds of people crowd onto the dock in England on 10th April 1912?

(2) When did the Titanic sink?

(3) Write the sentence which tells you that the crew reacted immediately upon spotting the Iceberg.

MY SHADOW

I have a little shadow that goes in and out with me,
And what can be the use of him is more than I can see.
He is very, very like me from the heels up to the head;
And I see him jump before me, when I jump into my bed.

The funniest thing about him is the way he likes to grow-
Not at all like proper children, which is always very slow;
For he sometimes shoots up taller like an india-rubber ball,
And he sometimes gets so little that there's none of him at all.

He hasn't got a notion of how children ought to play,
And can only make a fool of me in every sort of way.
He stays so close beside me, he's a coward you can see;
I'd think shame to stick to nurse as that shadow sticks to me!

One morning, very early, before the sun was up,
I rose and found the shining dew on every buttercup;
But my lazy little shadow, like an arrant sleepy-head,
Had stayed at home behind me and was fast asleep in bed.

Read the text and answer the questions.

5 My Name is Geoffrey Hobbes Smith. I am an expert in antique musical instruments. I live in Oxford where I have a small but important business. I buy and sell antique musical instruments. It is necessary for me to travel a lot because of my work. I frequently visit France, Italy and Germany and sometimes I go as far as America or even Japan.

10 Six months ago, I was in Italy, I had been invited to attend a festival of early music on the island of Ischia. Ischia in the spring was beautiful. An island was green as an emerald, and around it, the sea as blue as the sky above. I stayed in an enormous villa, which once belonged to a famous English composer. It had a huge garden, with hundreds of lemon trees. The lemons in Ischia were as big as footballs. I do not like travelling, but sometimes being in a different place is a pleasure.

15 The music festival was very boring. There were not any famous or important musicians. I only like listening to them. After one or two concerts, I was bored. I preferred to stay in the lovely garden and look at the deep blue sea and the green trees. When the last night of the festival arrived, I was happy. 'Tomorrow I will be able to go back home!' I thought. As I had not been to many of the concerts, I thought I should at least attend the final one. I arrived when the small orchestra was tuning up, and mentally prepared myself for another boring evening.

20 Unfortunately, things became more complicated. The organizer of the music festival noticed my presence. Before I knew it, my name was announced and I was invited to play a piece on the violin. The crowd was applauded as they waited for me to make my way up the stage. I took a deep breath and played my favourite self-composed piece.

25 The crowd loved it. Various shouts for an encore echoed through the concert hall. The organizer was delighted. In fact he was so delighted that he invited me to play for his personal party which was to be held two days later. I could not reject his offer, for it would have been rude. However, I knew I wanted to return home where my heart was. So it was with a heavy heart that I accepted his offer.

1. Say whether the following statements are True or False by writing “T” or “F” against each of them.

(1) Geoffrey has to travel a lot because of his hobby

(2) Geoffrey often visits France, Italy and Germany.

(3) The island of Ischia in Italy is famous for football.

(4) While Geoffrey was in Italy, he stayed in a small villa.
